AUGUST 5, 2018, UPDATE 101

See new pics below

Greetings to you All,

Since our last update there has been much progress on the boat, despite the shortcomings of my knee that has not been too good at times. Because of my knee, I need to return to the USA for medical attention earlier than planned, but overall, things have gone well. I will be returning Aug 16th Lord willing. I will have been here in Lewisporte Newfoundland Canada for nearly 4 months, away from my wife and Church, so it will be great to get back.

Crossing update:

What seems to be a setback, not making the crossing this year, is a blessing in disguise. The Lord always has a purpose in everything that happens, we have a sovereign God that Loves us. Also Remember: Romans 8:28 And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.

Due to this postponement, we found on our sea trials a serious issue in our drive system that needed parts changed, and a few other things that if they had not been found, we would not have made it across the Atlantic. Because of my knee issue I was not able to have the boat ready to catch the 3 week window for the crossing, hence the delay.

Another very serious change we made was that using fuel bladders on the top deck wasn't going to work because they would be too heavy. This too could have caused a catastrophic event. So these repairs and changes are needed for a successful crossing to Greenland, and without the delay I don't think these things would have been found.

Then for the icing on the cake..... In the last few weeks the Lord brought us 2 men (Ken Tucker & Todd Maye) with 30 years of experience traveling the Newfoundland and Labrador coast lines. They worked as Canadian Government Patrols (like police) for 30 years in large power boats, so they know the coast lines so well that navigational charts aren't even needed, all though we will have them. Both are willing and even excited to help us with the trip north to Makkovik Labrador where we start the crossing. Again, without the delay this would not have happened. Most of the crew is in place, let me explain.....

For the crew north up the coast we have Anda, our Greenlandic friend, Ken, Todd and I, going north (4 people) from Lewisporte Newfoundland to Makkovik Labrador, about 600 miles. Then for the crossing we have Myself, Anda & Todd for right now (3 people), we need one more for the crossing. We may have a Faroese Captain for the crossing and then partly up the northern coast of Greenland, but we are not sure about the Faroese man yet. A crew of 4 is ideal for the entire trip, which will take 11 to 13 days, which is an estimate due to winds & currents, and how many times we decide to anchor for whatever reason. I will be returning to Lewisporte the beginning of April 2019 to tie up any loose ends, check the boat out after sitting on shore in the winter snow, put her in the water, do the final checkups, and then load her up for the crossing. Lord willing..... Thank You Lord.....

What God did in our town, Qasigiannguit, Greenland:

Anda & Laila, our friends from our town in Greenland came to Canada for the crossing but since it was postponed, they stayed and for a few weeks helped work on the boat. My in-laws came for a few weeks as well and helped work on the boat.

The last week Anda & Laila were here, they slept on the boat and every morning we had a little Bible Study. Each day more and more questions came up and each day the Lord worked in their hearts. The second to the last morning they both asked Christ into their hearts.

After doing so I told them that I don't believe in secret agent Christians, and when you are truly born again (A disciple) it becomes something you can't hold back, so be bold and share with others what the Lord did in your Heart. I said that a public commitment is very important, and then I explained why.

When they left to return to Greenland, it took several days to get home because of the different airlines. Their excitement was so great that they couldn't wait to tell everybody what happened, so they posted their born again experience on Face Book, that's a public commitment, and it didn't stop there. Back in town, with their children, at work and everybody they knew they shared what Christ had done inside their hearts. Inside out, not outside in.....if you know what I mean. Praise The Lord.....Repentance is not a process!!!!!!

Solveig's Citizenship:

Still waiting for her last few appointments and swearing in which could still be a few more months, but we will let you know when it all is finished.

Prayer needs;

1. The completion of all the work to be done on the boat
2. Good health
3. My knee
4. Continued support
5. Solveig's citizenship
6. Thanking the Lord for all he has done and will be doing in the task at hand...

The lord always answers prayer, it is just that at times it's not in our time frame or what WE want. But last month's prayer number 7 was answered in this time frame. 7. Any unforeseen issues that require attention on the boat before we leave for Greenland... Thank You Lord for the postponement
