Missionaries in Qasigiannuit, Greenland

August 22, 2019 Update 108

"Our website will be updated with pictures of the crossing next week" I Hope!!!

Hello everyone,

This will be a short Update since our arrival back to our town Qasigiannuit has only been a few weeks & we are still getting re-acclimated as well as settled in to our new world here in Northern Greenland.

We'll recap our mission and direction for the ministry in the winter as well as the summer months.

OUR HOME:

We live in a small house, about 600 sq. ft. living space with a 1000 gallon indoor water tank, no indoor plumbing, and a bucket with a seat on it & plastic bag as a toilet. We have oil heating & electricity which is not cheap. There is a small market that sells everything from food, guns & ammo, screws, light bulbs, fishing gear and more. It is about a ¼ size of a football field or less. We fly in by Helicopter in the winter time and supplies run out for a few months like eggs, butter, and other staples.

We ice fish in the winter months, and eat a lot of fish, whale & seal. We stock up if we can for the winter. Again we don't have roads between towns or villages, so in the winter time you're pretty much stuck in town.

THE MINISTRY:

Our summers here are 3 to 4 months max and now with "Qaamaneq", our boat, we will be reaching out to the northern villages with the Word of God. Typically, people will outreach to a village for a day or so and then move on. Our plan is to reach out to a village and then being lead by the Spirit of God to stay for a few weeks or a month to teach the Word and ground them a little more in Christ. There are many villages up north, so we have a lot of work to do.

We are also praying about bringing a worship team from the USA and visit a few villages to reach out to the youth. If the Lord opens that door this coming year we will need to start planning now for such an event. We are thinking to visit 3 to 4 villages using Qaamaneq as our mode of transportation. Pray for the Lord's leading in this.

For the winter time we have plans for prayer groups, Bible studies and a big part of this ministry seems to be a lot of one on one counseling. We also have a few felt boards with beautiful brightly colored Bible stories with buildings, animals, and Bible characters which we will be using in the orphanage in town; there are about 8 children there.

We may also have an opportunity to start a Bible study in the factory here in town, Keep that in prayer too.

Special prayer need: Solveig's mom, Selma, has been admitted to a hospital in Denmark for the last 4 weeks with cancer. She is being moved to the Faroe Islands for her last days before passing. Solveig left Monday to go to Aasiaat and catch the plane on Tuesday for the Faroe Islands where her mother is now. Thank you for your prayers.
